

INSTITUT FÜR
FINANZ- UND
STEUERRECHT

UNIVERSITÄT
HEIDELBERG
ZUKUNFT
SEIT 1386

Blockveranstaltung: U.S. International Tax and Upcoming Reforms

Professor Omri Marian

University of California, Irvine (UCI) School of Law

Termine: Fr. 9.6. + Mo. 12.6. + Mi. 14.6.2017
jeweils 11 Uhr c.t. – 13 Uhr

Ort: Juristisches Seminar, Westtrakt, Raum 229
(= Institut für Finanz- und Steuerrecht, LS Prof. Dr. E. Reimer)

Session 1 - Introduction to U.S. international taxation and tax treaty policies

Session 2 - Problems with the U.S. international tax system

Session 3 - Current reform proposals and their possible global effects

Professor Omri Marian is the Academic Director of the International Tax Program at the University of California, Irvine (UCI) School of Law. He joined UCI in 2015, after spending three years as an Assistant Professor at the University of Florida Graduate Tax Program. Prior to starting his academic career, Marian practiced tax law at the New York office of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP. He earned his SJD, and LL.M. in International Taxation at the University of Michigan Law School. Marian is the United States National Reporter for this year's European Association of Tax Law Professors Congress on Corporate Tax Residence and Mobility. His main research interests are international taxation, comparative taxation, and taxation of financial instruments.

Please register with Ms. Susanne Röth via e-mail (LS-reimer@uni-heidelberg.de) by June 7th.