

Professor Dr. Eberhard Schmidt-Aßmann

Professor Emeritus of Public Law, University of Heidelberg, Germany

Research: fields of interest

- Constitutional law.
- German, European and international administrative law.
- Comparative administrative law
- Municipal law, urban and regional planning law, environmental law.

Professional Experience

1972–79 Professor of Law at the University of Bochum, and for several years judge (part-time) at the Higher Administrative Court of North Rhine-Westphalia.

1979–06 Professor of Public Law at the University of Heidelberg, and for several years judge (part-time) at the Higher Administrative Court of Baden-Württemberg.

Since 2006 Professor Emeritus.

Education and qualifications

1971 Habilitation by the University of Göttingen.

1968 Second state exam in law (bar exam equivalent), Hannover.

1967 Doctor of Laws, Faculty of Law, University of Göttingen.

1958–1963 Studies in law and classics at the Universities of Göttingen and Geneva, graduation (first state exam in law) in 1963.

Memberships and appointments

Since 1994– Member of the Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities.

1997–98, Fellow of the Berlin Institute of Advanced Studies (“Wissenschaftskolleg”).

1993–99 Member of the German Science Council (“Wissenschaftsrat”).

1988–96 Reviewer of the German Research Foundation (“Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft”).

Doctor honoris causa Athen (1999), Huelva (2009).

Other Memberships include the Association of German Constitutional Law Professors (Member of the Board 1982–83), German Jurists Forum (Member of the Board 1996–2002), Society for Comparative Law, French Association of Administrative Law, European Public Law Group.