12th DOCTORAL SEMINAR ON INTERNATIONAL AND EU TAX LAW

30th June to 1st July 2022 — Heidelberg University

The Seminar is open to Ph.D. candidates in the fields of international, European and comparative tax law. It follows successful events held in Bergamo, Groningen, Heidelberg, Linz, Louvain-la-Neuve, Luxembourg and Valencia.

Ph.D. candidates in their second and third year are invited to present their research projects their major hypotheses and/or results, depending on the level of progress. Each presentation will be followed by feedback and discussion with a panel consisting of tax professors and leading experts from practice, including EU institutions. To allow sufficient time for in-depth debates and valuable feedback, the number of presentations is limited to 12 Ph.D. projects.

Interested Ph.D. candidates are encouraged to submit a one-page exposé of their presentation. The presentation should address the following points:

- title of your dissertation
- topic in more detail: What is your research question?
- hypotheses: What are the ideas challenged/to be tested?
- methodological framework: How are you going to answer your question(s)?
- potential results: What is your preliminary conclusion on the hypotheses?
- novelty: What are the points no one else has made so far (or not in this way)?
- stage of your research: When did you start? When will your thesis be finalized?

Participants must be able and willing to bear their own costs of travel and accommodation. A limited number of part-cost travel grants might be available.

Please submit your application via e-mail to fst@uni-heidelberg.de on or before Wednesday, the 13th of April 2022.
